Who am I?

I specialise in Project Delivery recruitment, across the West Midlands. Essentially, I work with people who act as the conduit between the Business and IT. I also like to bring a positive attitude to the work place, work hard play hard!

Outside of work I love to play sports and stay fit. I spend a lot of time with my friends socialising or getting together with family.

I was awarded Xpertise Rookie of the year 2017!

What makes me different?

My approach to work is very personable. Every relationship matters, be that with a candidate, a client or even a colleague.

I take the time to find out what people really want and need, and then I provide the solution. I go above and beyond for the people I work with, and I will always strive to give a faultless service.

I focus mainly on the growth of my network. The more people you speak to, the more you learn, the simpler the process becomes.

Why Xpertise Recruitment?

Xpertise Recruitment provide hard to find Project Delivery professionals across the UK. We help candidates achieve their career ambitions, and provide advice, coaching and training to those who need support. We believe we offer something different from other agencies, bringing the human touch into recruitment by concentrating on building lasting relationships with candidates and clients, rather than making a quick sale. Our goal is to 'disrupt by caring'.

Don't just take my word for it...

"Joe reached out to me with several opportunities that he thought might suit based on my CV. We discussed each, and importantly, Joe took the time to understand what I wanted and what was important to me for a new role.

Joe helped me prepare for each stage of the interview process for the role I chose to pursue, and communications were great all the way through.

Working with Joe was a great experience, he's both friendly and professional and I look forward to doing it again soon, but next time as a hiring manager!"

"Joe – Thank you for all your help and support throughout my recent recruitment process. You've demonstrated exceptional market insight and a deep business relationship with your customer in order to place me in such a fantastic role. You are clearly an important part of my employer's resource supply chain – your success is equally evident amongst the new colleagues that I have met who all realised their own career potential through your direct involvement. I hope we stay in touch, and I wish you all the success possible in your future engagements. Best regards, Stuart."
